

Your Partnership Is Necessary This Coming Year

Dear Family and Friends,

Just a quick note to wish all you of you blessed New Year. We had a quieter Christmas this year than last since our son Isaac and his wife Suzanne Micheals and their son and our daughter Maria and her husband Josh Mishler and their four children have returned to Germany to pick up their work with Wycliffe there. We were able to see our daughter Rachel and her husband Chris and their four children in Iowa for Thanksgiving and so we celebrated Christmas with our daughter Jenny and her husband Kevin and their three children here in Florida.

Tonight, we celebrate New Year's Eve with my sister Sue and her husband Bruce who are down in Florida from cold (and likely snowy) Kalamazoo, Michigan. Tomorrow we spend time with Jenny, Kevin and their kids and it is almost warm enough to go swimming here in Florida!

This coming January 2019 marks 34 years ago since we first left for Papua New Guinea and here we are all these years later still serving with Wycliffe. In all these years, we have been able to stay in our work with Wycliffe because of "partners in ministry" and like any ministry, continued support is necessary to continue the work. That's true for us as well.

January – 1985

December – 2017

Many people have supported us over the years, so first, we want to say thank you to everyone who so faithfully prays and has supported us with finances. We could not do our work with you and these things. New supporters have come on board our team over the years for which we give thanks. Others have left for a variety of reasons or gone on to glory and they are missed. Thus, our need to involve new partners in ministry is always necessary. For those who have yet to become involve in partnership with us monthly or a one-time gift, the link below is the easiest way to do so. It is also a secure and safe way to give. So, we do pray you will consider becoming a partner with us this coming year. If you give a gift before 11:59 pm tonight, it will still count for the 2018 tax year. You can sign up to pray also on this site by dropping us a note and we value that as well!
